

God's Glorious Consummation

Overview of Revelation

Lesson 2 Questions

First Day: Read Lesson 1 Notes.

The notes and lecture fortify the truth of the passage for understanding and application to daily life.

1. What from the lecture was meaningful to you as you prepare to study the book of Revelation?
2. What concepts about prophecy are new to you or do you better understand after studying the notes?

Second Day: Revelation's Themes

The truth that streams throughout the Bible converges in Revelation with God-ordained consistency.

3. a. What themes are in the following passages, and how do they alarm you or give you hope?
Revelation 1:4-8; 22:7

Revelation 2:9-10; 13:10b; 14:12

Revelation 12:10-17; 13:5-7

Revelation 19:6-9, 11-16

Revelation 21:1-4; 22:1-5

- b. Which theme are you most interested in learning about? Why?

Third Day: Revelation's Writer and Recipients

The writer of Revelation and its original recipients loved Jesus and His Word.

4. a. What do the following Scripture passages tell us about John, the author of Revelation?
(Note: The term "the one Jesus loved" refers to John, the author of his gospel and Revelation.)
Matthew 4:21-22; Matthew 17:1-3

John 19:25-27

John 20:1-10

John 21:20-25

Acts 4:13

- b. How do these facts speak to the trustworthiness of John's witness?
5. a. Read Revelation 1:9 and 2:2-3, 9-10. What do these passages reveal about the lives of some of the original recipients of the book of Revelation?
- b. What similarities are there between the original recipients of Revelation and Christians today?
 - c. How do you desire your relationship with God to be transformed through your study of Revelation?

Fourth Day: Revelation's Subject: God

God is majestically on display throughout Revelation.

6. Read Revelation 2:7; 4:8-11; 5:9-12; 19:10; 22:17. What do these passages say about God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit?
7. a. What do you learn about worshipping God from today's passages?
- b. What attributes of God are especially meaningful to you, and how can you incorporate them into your worship of Him?

Fifth Day: Revelation's Content: Eternal Hope

Revelation is as relevant today as it was for the first recipients of the book.

8. a. What glorious truths about the Lord Jesus Christ are proclaimed in Revelation 1:17-18?
- b. What does it mean to you that Jesus is alive forever and ever? How does this help you?
9. a. What are some things in this world that lead to doubt or despair? Which impact you personally?
- b. Read Acts 1:9-11; 1 Corinthians 15:51-55; 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17; Revelation 22:12-13. How does the certainty of Christ's return impact your perspective and actions in our broken world?

Sixth Day: Review the previous days' Scripture passages.

God's promised eternal victory offers God's people assurance for today.

10. What have you learned this week about God and His relationship to His creation and His children?

No Passage Discovery (homiletics, word study, etc.) assigned for Group and Administrative Leaders.
